Ronnen Armon to Retire

TYSONS CORNER, Va. and PETAH TIKVA, Israel, April 30, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- Cellebrite DI Ltd. (Nasdaq: CLBT), a global leader in AI-powered Digital Investigative and Intelligence solutions, today announced the appointment of Shiven Ramji as President of Products and Technology. In this role, Ramji will lead the Company's product and technology organization, driving innovation and execution of Cellebrite's industry-leading Digital Investigative and Intelligence platform. Ramji will start on May 4, 2026 and succeed Ronnen Armon, who will be retiring in a few months after the transition is complete.

"We are thrilled to welcome Shiv to Cellebrite. Shiv's impressive track record, experience and expertise will be critical as we continue to accelerate the pace of AI adoption and innovation in our products to support our customers and deliver on our mission of protecting communities, nations and businesses," said Thomas E. Hogan, CEO of Cellebrite. "I would like to thank Ronnen Armon for his leadership and many significant contributions to Cellebrite's success over the last five years, including transforming the Company into an AI-first, market-leading public company. On behalf of the employees of Cellebrite, I want to wish Ronnen all the best as he enters this well-deserved chapter of his life."

Ramji brings a wealth of experience to Cellebrite and a track record of scaling high-growth technology companies and leading product and technology organizations through periods of significant growth and transition. He joins from Okta, where he served as President of Auth0, managing a $1 billion ARR business and overseeing its product, data, security and technology strategy and execution. Before Auth0 and Okta, Ramji served as the Senior Vice President of Product at DigitalOcean, and held leadership positions at global brands including Amazon, NBCUniversal, LiveIntent and The Nielsen Company.

"I am honored to join Cellebrite and lead a team that is dedicated to making a real difference in the world," said Shiven Ramji. "Cellebrite's commitment to innovation is fundamental to its inspiring mission. I look forward to working with the team to further enhance and broaden our product offerings, and empower our customers to make the world a safer place."

Ramji is an active angel investor and startup advisor, with a deep commitment to fostering entrepreneurship and innovation. He currently serves on the boards of Products That Count and Aiven.io.
