March 22, 2022

Cellebrite's Digital Intelligence solutions will broaden this organization's capabilities to leverage digital evidence and accelerate investigations, helping to improve public safety

TYSONS CORNER, Va., March 22, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Cellebrite (Nasdaq: CLBT), a global leader in Digital Intelligence (DI) solutions for the public and private sectors, today announced that it has expanded its strategic, multi-year partnership with one of the largest sheriff's offices in the United States, and a member of the Major County Sheriffs of America Association. We expect that the agreement will extend the agency's capabilities by helping to accelerate investigations focused on violent crimes and internet crimes against children (ICAC).

Under this agreement, the customer plans to strengthen efforts to collect and review digital evidence by decentralizing capabilities and making them available across the investigative team. The agreement includes an expanded suite of solutions from Cellebrite's end-to-end DI Platform, comprised of Cellebrite Premium Enterprise, Cellebrite UFED, and Physical Analyzer. Additionally, the customer has an active proof-of-concept of Cellebrite Guardian, which is part of its efforts to explore ways to improve how digital evidence is stored, managed, and shared across the investigative team.

Alon Klomek, Cellebrite's Chief Business Officer, commented: "Expanding our relationship with a key strategic partner, who is also an early adopter of our solutions, underscores the importance of Cellebrite's entire end-to-end Digital Intelligence platform to law enforcement agencies as they work to accelerate justice and save lives. We are thrilled to further strengthen this relationship and look forward to continuing to work alongside progressive law enforcement agencies to further their investigative capabilities."

Revenue recognition of this multi-year deal of approximately USD 700,000 began in 2021.
