

National Police Force in EMEA Expands Long-Term Contract to Broaden Use of Cellebrite's Digital Intelligence Solution Suite

April 6, 2022

Cellebrite's advanced access capabilities will now be available on over 100 UFED end point licenses in the police force to help reduce case backlogs

PETAH TIKVA, Israel and TYSONS CORNER, Va., April 06, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Cellebrite (Nasdaq: CLBT), a global leader in Digital Intelligence (DI) solutions for the public and private sectors, today announced that a national police force in EMEA has expanded its long-term partnership with Cellebrite, resulting in one of the largest Cellebrite Premium Enterprise deployments to date.

The USD 2 million agreement will enable the police force to deploy solutions from Cellebrite's industry-leading DI offering across its operations, establishing Cellebrite UFED Ultimate as the premier collection and review solution for examiners in the lab and investigators in the field across the police force and extending Cellebrite Premium capabilities to all UFED end points.

Arthur Veinstein, Cellebrite's General Manager, International Business, commented: "We are thrilled to have a long-term customer choosing to continue modernizing its investigative efforts through increased adoption of Cellebrite's DI solutions. Adoption of our solutions at the national level will enhance collaboration among the police force's examiners and investigators, resulting in more efficient and effective investigations."
