Cellebrite's LegalView add-on for RelativityOne to simplify how modern data is collected and reviewed

PETAH TIKVA, ISRAEL, TYSONS CORNER, VA, CHICAGO, IL and NEW YORK, NY – March 20, 2023 – Cellebrite DI Ltd. (Nasdaq: CLBT), a global leader in Digital Intelligence (DI) solutions for the public and private sectors, announced today it will offer its LegalView Physical Analyzer capability as a direct add-on to Relativity's proven SaaS product, RelativityOne, bringing more ease and speed to corporate investigations.

"Mobile data is often the most critical piece of evidence. As legal practitioners across the private sector struggle to manage this type and volume of data, the courts increasingly demand it be collected, reviewed, and produced. Our collaboration with Cellebrite addresses one of the industry's most pressing needs by optimizing the collection, review, and management process without compromising investigative confidence," said Chris Brown, Chief Product Officer at Relativity.

Combining the power of Cellebrite LegalView and RelativityOne simplifies and streamlines the inclusion of data from multiple mobile devices into formats for review. Compared to processes that require data be manually transferred from system to system, this new solution allows for easier, faster, and safer uploads of all types of data into the platform, readily providing complete visibility into critical communications from phones, tablets, and cloud chat applications.

"Integrating Cellebrite LegalView with RelativityOne makes increasingly pertinent mobile data available quickly to corporate investigators while conserving resources and removing the time-consuming process of manipulating data into a digestible format," said Ken Basore, General Manager at Cellebrite Enterprise Solutions. "We look forward to seeing the positive impact this integration has on improving the efficiency and effectiveness of legal investigators' workflows."

The LegalView add-on is expected to be released to RelativityOne and Cellebrite users in spring 2023. The companies will preview the integration during Legalweek, March 20-23 in New York City.
