

CELLEBRITE DI LTD.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

The board of directors (the “Board”) of Cellebrite DI Ltd. (the “Company”) has constituted and established a compensation committee (the “Committee”) with the authority, responsibility and duties as described in this Compensation Committee Charter (this “Charter”).

This Charter does not derogate from nor supersede, and instead will be read in conjunction with, the terms set forth in the Company’s Compensation Policy for Office Holders (the “Compensation Policy”), which was adopted on August 5th, 2021 in accordance with the requirements set forth under the Israeli Companies Law, 5759-1999, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, as may be amended from time to time (the “Companies Law”). If any term of this Charter contradicts the requirements under the Companies Law relating to the Compensation Policy, or the Compensation Policy itself, then the terms of the Companies Law and the Compensation Policy, as applicable, will prevail.

I. Purpose

The purpose of the Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) is to oversee (i) the discharge of the responsibilities of the Board relating to compensation of the Company’s (a) Board members, (b) Chief Executive Officer, (c) “office holders,” as such term is defined under the Companies Law and (d) “executive officers” as defined by the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market LLC, and (ii) the administration of the Company’s equity incentive plans.

II. Composition

The Committee must consist of at least three directors, each of whom must satisfy the independence requirements of the Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (the “Nasdaq”), except as otherwise permitted by applicable Nasdaq rules, and meet all other eligibility requirements of applicable laws, including the requirements of the Companies Law with respect to external directors, as applicable. Committee members must be appointed and may be removed from the Committee, with or without cause, by the Board. Unless a Chair is designated by the Board, the Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the full Committee membership, subject to the requirements of the Companies Law with respect to external directors, as applicable.

III. Meetings, Procedures and Authority

The Committee will meet as often as necessary to carry out its responsibilities, but no less than once every fiscal year. The Committee has the authority to establish its own rules and procedures for notice and conduct of its meetings so long as they are not inconsistent with any provisions of the Companies Law and the Company’s Amended and Restated Articles of Association, as in effect from time to time (the “Articles of Association”). The presence (in person or via telephone or other means of remote communication) of a majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at a meeting of the Committee, and the act of a majority of those present at any meeting at which there is a quorum and who are entitled to vote on the matter shall be the act of the Committee. The Committee may also act in a unanimous written consent in lieu of a meeting of the then-serving members of the Committee.

The Committee shall have the authority, in its sole discretion, without Board approval and at the Company's expense (which shall be funded appropriately by the Company), to retain, oversee the work of, and subsequently terminate independent, outside legal counsel, compensation consultants and other experts and consultants to assist the Committee in connection with its responsibilities, and to approve such advisers' compensation and other retention terms. In addition to the duties and responsibilities expressly delegated to the Committee in this Charter, the Committee may exercise any other powers and carry out any other responsibilities consistent with this Charter, the purposes of the Committee, the Articles of Association, the Companies Law and applicable Nasdaq rules.

The Committee may select a compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser to the Committee only after taking into consideration, all reasonable factors relevant to that person's independence from the Company's management, including the following factors under the rules of Nasdaq:

4.1. The provision of other services to the Company by the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser;

4.2. The amount of fees received from the Company by the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser, as a percentage of the total revenue of the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser;

4.3. The policies and procedures of the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser that are designed to prevent conflicts of interest;

4.4. Any business or personal relationship of the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser with a member of the Committee;

4.5. Any ordinary shares of the Company owned by the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser; and

4.6. Any business or personal relationship of the compensation consultant, legal counsel, other adviser or the person employing the adviser with an executive officer of the Company.

However, none of the above criteria need be considered by the Committee in retaining an adviser which only (i) consults on any broad-based plan that does not discriminate in scope, terms, or operation, in favor of executive officers or directors of the Company, and that is available generally to all salaried employees of the Company; or (ii) provides information that either is not customized for the Company or that is customized based on parameters that are not developed by the adviser, and about which the adviser does not provide advice.

For the avoidance of doubt, although the Committee must consider the foregoing factors before selecting, or receiving advice from a compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser, such advisor is not required to be independent. The Committee may select, or receive advice from, any adviser it prefers, including ones that are not independent, after considering the foregoing.

The Committee has the authority to conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within the scope of its responsibilities as it deems appropriate, including the authority to request any officer, employee or adviser of the Company to meet with the Committee or any advisers engaged by the Committee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, unless otherwise permissible under the Companies Law and applicable Nasdaq rules, the Chief Executive Officer and each of the other Office Holders shall not be present during voting or deliberations on his or her compensation.
